

Amy is the President of MicroAge Peterborough – Whitby and has 34 years' experience in IT. After completing a BA at York University, she got a temporary position at Computer Company shredding paper. Today, she owns a technology firm MicroAge Peterborough Whitby and is also a shareholder in the 100% Canadian parent company which has 41 locations. She has been honoured to receive awards and achievements over the years such as; Businesswomen of the Year Award 2015, MicroAge Canada – Community Support Award 2015, PTBO Chamber Excellence Awards Customer First 2016, MicroAge Canada – Business Transformation 2018, and 50 Best Managed IT Companies 2019,20,21,22,23, Taylor Business Group – Operational Excellence Dec 2020 and Junior Achievement Business Hall of Fame Inductee 2021. Amy has been an active Rotarian for 20 years and served on the board and as President of a Local Womens' Networking group. Amy and her company support the communities they serve in many ways including "The MicroAge Farthing Family Fund".