

Sheryl Wedderburn is the CEO at the Canadian Mental Health Association Durham.

The transformation and modernization of housing programs for people with serious mental illness; attaining Accreditation with exemplary standing and raising the profile of the organization within the mental health and addictions sector by co-partnering with lead service providers to support a care model for people living with Schizophrenia. Sheryl has a proven track record in removing barriers between providers and designing client-centred systems while championing the expansion of the traditional catchment areas moving towards equitable access to care. As a seasoned Governor, Sheryl has been serving on various Boards since 1986, from hospital sector to community. In addition to her role as Officer of the esteemed CMHA Durham Board of Directors, she is the Treasurer and Founding President for JCAN, a registered not-for-profit charity serving the Afro-Caribbean population, and the Vice Chair for the Alzheimer Society of Durham Region Board.